Friday Night Dialogues @ the Library

Shelter Island's Red Cross:
Past, Present and Future featuring CEO Joy
Bausman with fellow volunteers Jack Thilberg,
Peter McCracken and Art Williams

The Shelter Island Chapter of the American Red Cross is one of only 12 chapters in the country wholly comprised of unpaid volunteers that provide disaster and crisis relief plus health and safety training. Join us to hear stories from its colorful past and valuable recommendations for disaster awareness and preparedness on Shelter Island.

March 12, 2010 - 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm

Library Lower Level

Admission is Free - Donations to the Library Gladly Accepted
Light Refreshments will be served.

Made possible by the Betsy Jacobson Memorial Fund, the "Friday Night Dialogues" series brings expert opinion and vivid recollections on a variety of subjects - and offers a forum for discussion and conversation among Shelter Islanders.
